

As a designated user of the Do-Not-Call List I am distressed to hear that there is an ongoing effort to have this overturned and I am very much against this. It has been wonderful to not be bothered by the multiple telemarketing calls that we used to receive on a daily basis. Your consideration to retain this in Indiana is appreciated.